Important notice. Intraday Markets is an information and media platform, not a broker or adviser. Trading leveraged products such as CFDs carries a high risk of losing money rapidly. Please read these Terms in full, in particular the Risk Warning and the Affiliate Disclosure, before using the Website.

1. Acceptance of These Terms

These Terms and Conditions (the "Terms") form a legally binding agreement between you and Intraday Markets ("Intraday Markets", "we", "us" or "our") and govern your access to and use of www.intradaymarkets.com, its sub-pages, tools, widgets, news feeds, research pages, calculators and any related services (together, the "Website").

By accessing or using the Website, submitting a form, or clicking any link or button that states you agree to these Terms, you confirm that you have read, understood and agree to be bound by them and by our Privacy Policy. If you do not agree, you must stop using the Website immediately.

2. About Intraday Markets

Intraday Markets is an online financial information and media platform. The Website provides market data displays, charts, news headlines and summaries, an earnings calendar, market movers, heatmaps, watchlist tools, educational content, trade ideas and comparisons of third-party brokers and trading platforms.

Intraday Markets is not a broker, dealer, exchange, bank, investment adviser, fund manager or financial institution. We do not hold client money, execute trades, accept orders, or open trading accounts. Any trading account you open is held with, and governed by the terms of, an independent third-party provider.

3. Eligibility

You must be at least 18 years old (or the age of majority in your jurisdiction, if higher) and have full legal capacity to enter into these Terms. The Website is not directed to minors.

The Website is intended for general worldwide audiences, but not all content or third-party services are available or lawful in every country. You are solely responsible for ensuring that your use of the Website, and of any third-party service you reach through it, complies with the laws and regulations applicable to you, including any restrictions on trading leveraged or derivative products. The Website is not an offer or solicitation in any jurisdiction where such an offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

4. No Investment, Financial, Legal or Tax Advice

All content on the Website, including market commentary, research, ratings, price targets, scenario analyses, trade ideas, rankings, broker reviews, educational material and any content generated or curated by automated tools, is provided for general information and educational purposes only.

Nothing on the Website constitutes, or should be construed as, investment advice, a personal recommendation, an offer or invitation to buy or sell any security, derivative, currency or digital asset, or legal, tax or accounting advice. Content is not tailored to your objectives, financial situation or needs. Before making any investment decision you should consider your own circumstances and obtain independent advice from a suitably qualified and licensed professional.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future results. Forward-looking statements, forecasts, targets and scenarios are estimates based on assumptions that may prove incorrect.

5. Risk Warning

Trading and investing involve a substantial risk of loss and are not suitable for everyone. You should only trade with money you can afford to lose. In particular:

- Contracts for Difference (CFDs) and other leveraged products are complex instruments and carry a high risk of rapidly losing money due to leverage. A large proportion of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs. You should consider whether you understand how they work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.
- Equities, ETFs, IPOs and pre-IPO shares can fall sharply in value, may be illiquid, and in the case of pre-IPO or private securities may be subject to transfer restrictions, valuation uncertainty and total loss.
- Foreign exchange and digital assets are highly volatile and may trade around the clock, with gaps and slippage that can cause losses greater than expected.
- Currency, interest-rate, regulatory and political developments may materially affect the value of any investment.
- Demo or simulated results do not reflect real market conditions and may under- or over-state real performance.

By using the Website you acknowledge that you understand these risks and that you alone are responsible for your trading and investment decisions and their outcomes.

6. Market Data, Charts and Third-Party Widgets

Market data, prices, charts, technical analysis, economic calendars, heatmaps and similar information may be supplied by third-party providers, including embedded widgets from TradingView and other services. Such data may be delayed, indicative, derived from CFD or over-the-counter feeds rather than primary exchanges, incomplete, or temporarily unavailable.

Prices shown on the Website may differ from those quoted by your broker or the relevant exchange and must not be relied upon for executing trades. Where price data is marked as CFD or indicative, it reflects a provider's quotation and not necessarily an executable market price. We do not guarantee the accuracy, timeliness, completeness or fitness for purpose of any data.

Third-party widgets and feeds are subject to the terms and privacy policies of their respective providers, which you should review. We are not responsible for their content, availability or conduct.

7. News, Research, Ideas and Analyst Content

The Website aggregates and summarises news and may link to articles published by third parties such as newswires and financial media. Headlines, summaries and images remain the property of their respective owners. Inclusion of a story does not imply endorsement, and we do not verify third-party reporting.

Research pages, Wall Street price targets, earnings beat/miss figures, opportunity scanners, investment theses and similar tools are provided as informational aids. They may rely on automated processing and third-party data and may contain errors or omissions. Ratings and targets can change without notice and we undertake no obligation to update them. Certain features may in future be offered on a premium or subscription basis under separate terms.

8. Third-Party Websites, Brokers and Affiliate Disclosure

The Website contains links to, and comparisons of, third-party brokers, trading platforms, data vendors and other services. These are provided for convenience only. We do not own or control them and are not a party to any agreement between you and them.

Affiliate and commercial disclosure. Intraday Markets participates in affiliate, partner and referral programmes. We may receive compensation, such as commissions, fees or other benefits, if you click a link, register, deposit funds, or open an account with a third party. Compensation may influence which providers, offers or banners appear on the Website and how they are positioned or ordered. Rankings and reviews reflect our editorial judgement together with commercial considerations, and are not a guarantee of suitability or quality.

Before dealing with any third party you should independently verify that it is properly licensed or regulated in your jurisdiction, read its terms, fee schedules and risk disclosures, and satisfy yourself that its products suit you. Promotional offers, including deposit bonuses, are provided and administered solely by the relevant third party, are subject to its conditions (which may include trading-volume or withdrawal requirements), and may be changed or withdrawn by it at any time. We are not responsible for any loss arising from your dealings with any third party.

9. Call Booking, Contact Forms and Communications

The Website may allow you to request a call, consultation or further information by submitting a form (for example your name, email address, telephone number and country). By submitting a form you:

- confirm that the information you provide is accurate and that you are entitled to provide it;
- consent to being contacted by us, and by representatives acting on our behalf or partner firms to whom your request is passed on, by telephone, text message, email or messaging applications about your request and about relevant educational content and services;
- understand that any call is for general education and information, and that no adviser-client or fiduciary relationship is created; and
- may withdraw your consent to marketing at any time by contacting support@intradaymarkets.com or using the opt-out in any message.

Call recordings, where made, will be made in accordance with applicable law and notified to you. Further information on how we handle your data is set out in our Privacy Policy.

10. Advertising and Sponsored Content

The Website may display advertisements, banners, sponsored placements and partner promotions, including space reserved alongside news stories. Advertisers are responsible for their own content and claims. Display of an advertisement is not an endorsement or recommendation by us. Sponsored or affiliate content is intended to be identifiable as such, but you should treat any promotional material with appropriate caution.

11. Intellectual Property

The Website and its contents, including the Intraday Markets name, logo and branding, design, layout, source code, software, text, graphics, analytics and compilations, are owned by or licensed to us and are protected by copyright, trademark and other intellectual property laws. Third-party names, logos, trademarks and data remain the property of their owners and are used for identification only.

We grant you a limited, revocable, non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to access and use the Website for your own personal, non-commercial purposes in accordance with these Terms. No other rights are granted. You must not copy, reproduce, republish, frame, mirror, sell, license, or create derivative works from any part of the Website without our prior written consent, except for sharing links to pages or brief quotations with attribution as permitted by law.

12. Acceptable Use

You agree not to, and not to permit others to:

- use the Website unlawfully, fraudulently, or in any manner that breaches these Terms or applicable regulations;
- scrape, harvest, crawl, or systematically extract data or content using bots, spiders or other automated means, except for standard search-engine indexing that respects our robots.txt;
- reverse engineer, decompile, or attempt to discover source code or the underlying algorithms of any tool, except as permitted by law;
- interfere with or disrupt the Website, servers or networks, introduce malware, or attempt unauthorised access to any system or data;
- circumvent security, rate-limiting, or access controls, or use the Website to build a competing product or dataset;
- submit false, misleading or third-party personal information in any form, or impersonate any person or entity;
- use the Website to manipulate markets or to distribute unsolicited promotion, spam or illegal content; or
- remove proprietary notices, or use our branding in a manner implying affiliation or endorsement without consent.

We may investigate suspected violations and may suspend or block access, remove content, and cooperate with law enforcement where we consider it appropriate.

13. Feedback and Submissions

If you send us ideas, suggestions, comments or other feedback, you grant us a perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free, irrevocable licence to use, modify and incorporate them into the Website and our services without obligation or compensation to you. Do not send us confidential information through general-purpose forms.

14. Accounts, Portfolios and Saved Settings

Certain features, such as watchlists, custom market lists, notes, alerts or theme settings, may store your preferences in your browser or device, or in a future user account. You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of any credentials, for activity under your account, and for backing up information you value. If we introduce broker-connection or portfolio-import features, additional terms and consents will apply and will be presented to you before you use them.

15. Availability and Changes to the Website

We aim to keep the Website available but provide it on an "as available" basis. We may modify, suspend, restrict or discontinue any feature, content or the Website as a whole at any time, with or without notice, including for maintenance, security, legal or commercial reasons. We will not be liable to you or any third party for any such change or interruption.

16. Disclaimer of Warranties

To the fullest extent permitted by law, the Website and all content, data, tools and services are provided "as is" and "as available", without warranties of any kind, whether express, implied or statutory, including warranties of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, accuracy, completeness, timeliness, non-infringement, and uninterrupted or error-free operation.

We do not warrant that the Website will be free from viruses or harmful components, that defects will be corrected, or that any information, forecast or result will be accurate or achieved. Nothing in these Terms excludes any warranty or right that cannot lawfully be excluded.

17. Limitation of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, Intraday Markets, its owners, directors, officers, employees, contractors, affiliates, licensors and partners will not be liable for any indirect, incidental, special, consequential, exemplary or punitive damages, or for any loss of profits, revenue, trading gains, goodwill, data or business opportunity, arising out of or related to your use of, or inability to use, the Website, reliance on any content or data, or dealings with any third party, even if advised of the possibility of such loss.

Our total aggregate liability for all claims relating to the Website shall not exceed one hundred US dollars (USD 100). Nothing in these Terms limits liability for fraud, for death or personal injury caused by negligence, or for any liability that cannot be limited or excluded under applicable law. Some jurisdictions do not allow certain limitations, so some of the above may not apply to you.

18. Indemnification

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Intraday Markets and its owners, officers, employees, contractors and partners from and against any claims, liabilities, damages, losses and expenses (including reasonable legal fees) arising out of or connected with your breach of these Terms, your misuse of the Website, your violation of any law or third-party right, or any information you submit.

19. Privacy and Data Protection

Your use of the Website is also governed by our Privacy Policy, which explains what personal data we collect, how we use and protect it, and the choices and rights available to you. The Privacy Policy is incorporated into these Terms by reference.

20. Suspension and Termination

We may suspend or terminate your access to all or part of the Website at any time, without notice or liability, if we believe you have breached these Terms, if required by law, or for operational reasons. You may stop using the Website at any time. Provisions that by their nature should survive termination, including those on intellectual property, disclaimers, limitation of liability, indemnification and governing law, will survive.

21. Governing Law and Dispute Resolution

These Terms, and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them or the Website, are governed by the laws of the jurisdiction in which Intraday Markets is established, without regard to conflict-of-law principles. Subject to any mandatory consumer rights you may have under the law of your country of residence, the courts of that jurisdiction shall have exclusive jurisdiction.

Before commencing formal proceedings, you agree to first contact us at business@intradaymarkets.com and attempt in good faith to resolve the matter informally for at least thirty (30) days. To the extent permitted by law, any claim must be brought in your individual capacity and not as part of a class, collective or representative action, and must be commenced within one (1) year after the cause of action arose.

22. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms from time to time. The updated version will be posted on the Website with a revised effective date. Material changes may be highlighted on the Website. Your continued use of the Website after the effective date constitutes acceptance of the updated Terms. We encourage you to review this page periodically.

23. General Provisions

- Entire agreement. These Terms and the Privacy Policy constitute the entire agreement between you and us regarding the Website and supersede prior understandings.
- Severability. If any provision is held invalid or unenforceable, the remainder will remain in full force and the provision will be enforced to the maximum extent permissible.
- No waiver. Failure to enforce any right or provision is not a waiver of it.
- Assignment. You may not assign these Terms without our written consent. We may assign or transfer our rights and obligations to any affiliate or successor.
- Force majeure. We are not liable for any failure or delay caused by events beyond our reasonable control, including outages of utilities, hosting or data providers, cyber-attacks, market disruption, or acts of government.

- Language and headings. Headings are for convenience only. If these Terms are translated, the English version prevails in case of inconsistency.
- Electronic communications. You consent to receive notices from us electronically, including by posting on the Website or by email.

24. Contact

For business, legal or licensing enquiries, contact business@intradaymarkets.com. For support, feedback or privacy requests, contact support@intradaymarkets.com.

> Questions? Contact us at business@intradaymarkets.com (business and legal enquiries) or support@intradaymarkets.com (support and privacy requests).
